

10 CONVERSATIONS TO HAVE WITH YOUR SON

Before Someone Else Does

Take away guide from:

How To Raise Strong Kids In A Weak World

Silly vs. Funny

- 1 Don't be a clown. There's a difference between getting cheap laughs and being genuinely funny.

The Sincere Compliment Game

- 2 Sit kids across from each other and have them give sincere compliments for 15 minutes.

Your Last Name & Legacy

- 3 Sell them on what your last name means and the responsibility that comes with it.

What a Man's Body Goes Through

- 4 Puberty and sex - have the talk before the internet does.

The Four G's

- 5 Girls · Gluttony · Gambling · Greed. Explain how each one can derail a man's life.

Managing Expectations

- 6 In career, relationships, and friendships - learning to manage expectations prevents disappointment and resentment.

Addressing the Tension Between You

- 7 Sit down and surface: Concerns · Assumptions · Motives · Fears · Asks.

Not Drifting Through Life

- 8 Create a set of beliefs you want to teach them over and over. Lead. Respect. Improve. Love.

Beliefs to Live By

- 9 Return to these repeatedly: Lead · Respect · Improve · Love.

Their Career

- 10 Don't let them sleepwalk into a job. Sit down and have a real conversation about who they're becoming.
